

About the Faculty

Prof Praloy Majumder, a former banker, experienced trainer and finance academician has to his credit a vast experience in conducting large number of training workshops on various financial topics such as introduction to financial markets, corporate lending practices, risk management, derivatives, essential quants for financial professionals, etc.

Prof. Praloy Majumder is a bachelor in Pharmacy from Jadavpur University. He completed his Post Graduate Diploma in Business Management (MBA) from Indian Institute of Management Calcutta (IIMC) with Finance specialisation.

Praloy Majumder started his professional career as a banker, with Syndicate Bank. Then he worked with ICICI Bank Limited, one of India's largest banks. He has looked after a variety of functional areas including Branch Operations, Corporate Banking, Trade Finance, and Treasury Operations. In 2001, he was in charge of Banks corporate banking portfolio for Mid Cap clients in Eastern India.

In the year 2001, he joined Alumnus Software Limited, a software company engaged in the development of high-end soft ware as its Chief Financial Officer. He looked after the entire finance and accounts function of the company.

Prof Majumder is currently in freelance consulting and training in the field of finance. As such, he holds nearly 80 mandays of training every year and trains bankers and finance professionals at all levels.

In addition, he is also a visiting faculty at the Indian Institute of Management Calcutta, one of India's top business schools, where he teaches both students at post-graduate level, as also executives undergoing management programmes.