touchy lines..

We are happy to present “touches..”, our in house newsletter. The name “touches..” has several meanings –

- We endeavour to stay in touch with you...
- We endeavour to provide a touch of distinction – to ourselves and to the assignments that come our way.
- Within ourselves, we cherish an extreme touch of intimacy. All of us identify ourselves and think and care about each other.

It is these “touches” in multifarious dimensions that come out in “touches..”
