

Feedback of Company Law Crash Course

10th and 11th February, 2014 | Mumbai

Vinod Kothari and Company organized and hosted a crash course on Company Law for Senior Professionals on 10th and 11th February, 2014 in Mumbai at Indian Merchant Chambers (IMC).

The course started off with discussion on types of companies, new concepts/definitions, and detailed discussion on fines, penalties, offence so on and so forth. Crucial topics such as Inter Corporate loans, Related Party Transactions and interests in contract seem to have held the interest of the participants deeply. This apart, active involvement of the participants on various other topics were received, this made the sessions more detailed and informative.

The faculty of this workshop was Mr. Vinod Kothari who is an expert in the field of Company Law, Factoring, Leasing, Mortgage Lending, Hire-Purchase, Structured Finance, Securitization, Cash-Flow Modeling, Housing Finance, Covered Bonds and many more.

The workshop comprised of participants representing top companies. The rich knowledge and experience of the speaker made the training interesting and a good learning experience for all the participants. The feedback from the participants is summarized below:

QUALITY OF THE COURSE AND PRESENTATIONS

The overall quality of the course and presentation was rated as “Excellent”. The participants were explained in depth explanation about the Companies Act, 2013 with the draft rules.

RATING OF THE FACULTY

The workshop was led by Mr. Vinod Kothari who was rated “Excellent” by the participants for his knowledge and his promptness in handling the questions and ensuring complete clarity within the audience.

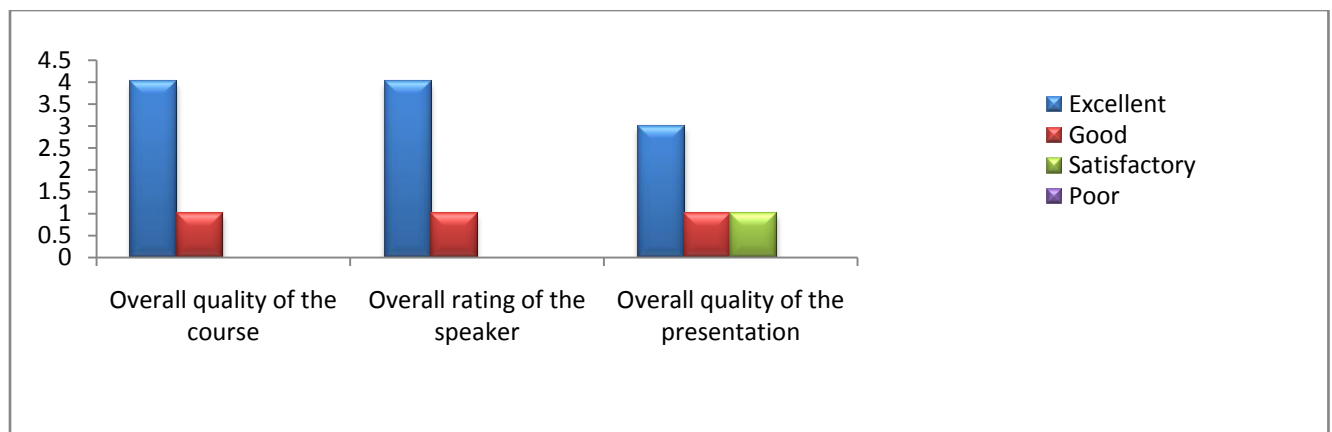

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

The crash course concluded on a happy note and there were specific comments from the participants. Some of the encouraging comments we received are as follows:

- Comparison of Old and New Act.
- Excellent Listener

The participants were keen on attending further such workshops with the request of increasing the time period of the workshop as the topics are very much diverse and required much more involvement and other workshops relating to SARFEASI Act, SEBI Regulation.
