

Job description for financial recruitments

Position: Consultant, Financial Services division

Vinod Kothari Consultants P Ltd (VKCPL) is a premier financial consulting firm with a vintage of over 25 years. We have special forte in the non-banking financial sector, and particularly on some advanced topics in finance such as securitisation, credit derivatives, leasing and asset-backed financing, structuring of financial instruments, housing finance, etc.

VKCPL is headed by Vinod Kothari, who is noted as author and trainer in non-banking finance. See profile at www.vinodkothari.com/profile/

Consulting services

VKCPL regularly handles consulting assignments pertaining to non-banking financial services. The assignments are challenging and innovative. Mostly the assignments involve a combination of structuring skills as also thorough knowledge of the regulatory environment including laws, taxation and accounting standards.

Research projects:

VKCPL is also awarded, from time to time, with consulting and research projects by Asian Development Bank, World Bank, National Housing Bank and other similar bodies. These projects pertain to making of research reports on a specific topic – for instance, the state of responsible lending in housing finance in India, or the state of affordable housing finance in India, or the introduction of covered bonds in India, or the state and scope for introduction of leasing for SMEs in India, etc.

Present position:

The incumbent will join us on full time basis as a consultant to join our financial services team.

The incumbent must possess the following knowledge resources:

- Strong awareness of emerging topics in finance, particularly structured finance
- Strong financial structuring skills
- Strong knowledge of the regulation and ability to search for answers within the set of applicable laws, accounting standards and taxation rules.

The incumbent must possess the following personal traits:

- Leadership and drive, to work with self motivation
- Sense of ownership at work

The incumbent will report to the Executive Vice President.

Emoluments

Commensurate with qualifications and resources, may be low in the beginning, leading to a fee-sharing arrangement in due course.