US: Envoy's Tawang visit marks support for Indian sovereignty

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Washington/New Delhi, 31 October

The US has said that the visit of its envoy to India to Arunachal Pradesh highlighted America's "support for Indian sovereignty", a remark that could rile China, which claims most of the northeastern state as its own. US Ambassador to India Kenneth Juster on Monday visited the border town of Tawang in the state to participate in the Tawang Festival.

The envoy's "Tawang visit highlights resolute US support for Indian sovereignty and commitment to local partnerships", Alice G Wells, Acting Assistant Secretary of State in the Bureau of South and Central Asia, said in a tweet on Wednesday. US funding supports joint public health and social sciences work in Arunachal by the University of South Florida and the Rajiv Gandhi University, she said. Wells also shared a tweet of Juster in which he posted some photographs of the event and wrote, "Such an honour to be Chief Guest at the Tawang Festival and inaugurate the seventh edition of this wonderful celebration. #USIndiaDosti."

The Tawang Festival is organised every year by Arunachal's tourism department. Juster also appreciated the presence of sports minister Kiren Rijiju at the festival. In 2016, China had admonished the US for sending its then envoy to India Richard Verma to Arunachal Pradesh, warning that a third party's meddling would only complicate the dispute between China and India.
