- 4.1. Nicco Corporation Limited- in liquidation holds 1,17,00,000 equity shares in Nicco Parks and Resorts Limited (NPRL) in terms of the Joint sector agreement dated 23.02.1990 ('JSA') with two State-owned Corporations viz, West Bengal Tourist Development Corporation (WBTDc) and West Bengal Industrial Development Corporation (WBIDc). There are several rights that both the parties to the JSA have in terms of the joint sector agreement, illustratively – (a) right to appoint/ replace/remove 3 nominee directors on the board of NPRL; (b) right with Nicco to appoint the managing director amongst the 3 nominees appointed by it; (c) right to receive periodic information about NPRL; (d) power to MD appointed by Nicco, to look after the day today operational affairs; (e) right to participate in policy decisions through nominees on board, etc.
- 4.2. The assignability of these rights, purportedly attached to the shareholding of NCL, by way of the subject liquidation sale, amongst other issues, was a subject matter before the NCLT in CA 669/ KB/ 2019 in C.P. No. 03/KB/ 2017, and in appeal before the NCLAT in Company Appeal (AT) (Ins) No. 1518 of 2019, Company Appeal (AT) (Ins) No. 44 of 2020 and Company Appeal (AT) (Ins) No. 244 of 2020 and in appeal before Supreme Court in Civil Appeal No(s) 2738/2020. The rulings of the NCLT, NCLAT and Supreme Court are available at NCLT Order dated 18.12.2019, NCLAT Order dated 20.03.2020 and Supreme Court order dated 21st July, 2020 It appears from the said rulings that the Hon'ble NCLT, NCLAT and Supreme Court have upheld the contention that the special rights attached with the shareholding of the shares are transferable along with the shares. Bidders are expected to do their own evaluation, after taking into consideration the rulings as above. If required, bidders may consult their advisers on the assignability of such special rights. For further information, please drop a mail at niccoliquidation@gmail.com
- 4.3. Further, as per terms laid down in the aforementioned JSA, in the event of either Company or any of the Corporations, intending to sell their holding of the NPRL shares, it is mandatory that an offer for sale be first made by the selling party to the other parties, with the offer period being 6 months. In pursuance of the same, the Liquidator, vide e-mail dated 4th January, 2018 had offered the NPRL shares for sale to the Corporations; however, no response was received from either of the Corporations. As such, the Liquidator floated a public invitation inviting expressions of interest for sale of the NPRL Shares. Thereafter, in July, 2020, the Corporations filed respective applications before the Hon'ble NCLT, Kolkata Bench, being I.A. No. 643/ KB/ 2020 (WBTDc) and I.A. No. 969/ KB/ 2020 (WBIDc). The Hon'ble NCLT vide a joint order dated 18.02.2021 allowed the said applications, thereby granting the Corporations a period of four weeks (from the date of offer by the Liquidator on the basis on fresh valuations received) to accept/ reject the offer. However, instead on accepting/ rejecting the offer of the Liquidator, WBTDc filed another application viz, I.A. No. 470/ KB/ 2021 praying for an extension of 8 weeks for accepting/ rejecting the offer. On receipt of the said application, the Hon’ble NCLT vide order dated 02.06.2021 granted a final opportunity of 8 weeks for accepting/ rejecting the Liquidator’s offer (expiring on 28th July, 2021), thereby directing that “...*It is made clear that there shall be no extension of this period under any circumstance and in case the process is not completed within the said period of eight weeks, then the Liquidator shall be free to proceed with the sale of shares through alternate means as envisaged under the law, since the liquidation process has already taken three years and it cannot be held up any further without doing violence to the objective of the statute itself.” (emphasis supplied)

- 11.17. The Liquidator reserves the right to accept or reject any/or all the Bids or adjourn, postpone or cancel the proposed auction sale anytime without assigning any reason thereon. - 11.22. - 11.23. The EMDs of the unsuccessful Applicants shall be refunded within 15 days from the date of Demand being made from the successful bidder. However, the Liquidator may retain EMD of the top 2 Bidders for up to 15 days from the date of Demand in order to consider the Bid submitted by the second highest Bidder in the event the H1 Bidder fails to pay the bid amount within the stipulated period. In that case, all the provisions as applicable to the H1 Bidder shall apply to the second highest Bidder. In case of cancellation of the auction sale, the EMDs of the Applicants shall be refunded within 15 days of the date of cancellation of the auction sale. Please note there is no interest payable on EMD in any condition.
