Chapter I: General applicability and scope	9
1. Broadly, how are TLE Directions different from erstwhile DA Guidelines? Do these Directions change the landscape for loan transfers as against the current practices?	9
2. What is the overall scheme of TLE Directions?	10
3. When do these TLE Directions take effect?	11
4. What happens to DA transactions concluded earlier? What happens to borderline cases?	11
Meaning of “loans”	11
5. What all “loans” are covered under TLE Directions?	11
6. Will transfer of lease receivables be covered under the TLE Directions?	12
7. What if the assets being transferred are debt securities?	13
8. Will TLE Directions apply in case of transfer of promissory notes or other negotiable instruments ?	13
9. A lender has given a facility to a borrower by way of lease rental discounting, that is, discounting of rentals out of a commercial property. Whether acquisition or transfer of such a facility be covered by the Directions?	13
10. A lender has taken a loan from X or issued a debenture to X, secured by a charge/mortgage on loan receivables on the books of the lender. There are events of default, based on which the charge/mortgage gets triggered, and the loans collateralising the borrowing/debenture of the lender have to be transferred to X. Is this transfer of loans, on the happening of an event of default, covered by TLE Directions?	14
Eligible financial sector entities	14
11. Who can transfer the loans? Who can acquire the loans? Can there be multiple transferors or transferees in a single transfer?	14
12. Does that mean, if an eligible transferor transfers loan to a person who is not an eligible transferee, the transfer will be outside the scope of TLE Directions? Or, if an eligible transferee acquires a loan from a person who is not an eligible transferor, can the transfer happen without following the TLE Directions?	16
Covered bonds	16
13. Are covered bonds transactions doable under the new TLE Regulations? ..	16
14. Does a covered bond structure necessarily require transfer of economic interest in the underlying loans?	17
Modes of transfer	17

15.	What modes of loan transfers are covered under the TLE Directions?.....	17
16.	How do TLE Directions distinguish between 'legal ownership' and 'economic interest'? What are the respective meanings and implications of these terms? What is the relevance and importance of such distinction?	17
17.	What is the relationship between TLE Directions and SSA Directions?.....	17
Chapter II: General Conditions applicable for all loan transfers		18
Board policy on loan transfers		18
18.	Why does one require a board approved policy for loan transfers?.....	18
19.	We are into acquisition of loans. Should we also frame policy for that?.....	18
20.	Should we have the same policy for TLE and SSA, or different?.....	18
21.	Should we have a common policy for acquisition and transfer of loans? Should we have a common policy for transfer of loans not in default, and for stressed loans, or different?	18
22.	As per the TLE Directions, the policy needs to lay down qualitative and quantitative standards? What are the qualitative and quantitative standards? Some examples in each case?.....	19
23.	We already have a board-approved policy for loan transfers. Do we need to amend that policy or can we continue with the same? If amendment is required, what aspects do we need to see in particular?	23
Independence of loan origination and loan trading		23
24.	The TLE Directions say that the Board policy should provide for "independence of functioning and reporting responsibilities of the units and personnel involved in transfer / acquisition of loans from that of personnel involved in originating the loans" - What does it mean? What is the intent of the separation of origination and transfer/acquisition? In practice, how is this separation to be achieved?	23
Transfer of legal ownership vs. economic interest		24
25.	What is economic interest? Is it possible to transfer economic interest without legal ownership and vice-versa?	24
26.	In case of loan transfers happening under TLE, is it necessary to transfer both legal ownership and economic interest?	27
27.	Are assignment and novation the only ways for transfer of legal interest? Are the Directions restrictive in terms of modes of transfer?	28
28.	Is loan participation the only way for transfer of economic interest, without transferring the legal interest?	28
29.	What do you mean by "legal ownership of the loan shall be mandatorily transferred to the transferee(s) to the extent of transfer of economic interest transferred"?	28

Transfer of a part of the loan	29
30. Is it possible to transfer a part of a loan?	29
31. How will a partial transfer of loan work?.....	29
32. Can a partial transfer of loan pool be structured such that the retained part amounts to a credit enhancement?	30
33. In case of a partial transfer of a loan pool, how will the proportion of risk retention, if applicable, will work?	30
Credit enhancements, liquidity facilities	30
34. Can the loan transfer happen with recourse to the transferor?	30
35. Can the transferor offer any form of credit enhancement?	30
36. Can a third party provide any form of credit enhancement?	31
37. A loan was originated with the benefit of a guarantee from a third party. Can the originator, while transferring the loan, transfer the benefit of the guarantee as well? 31	31
38. A loan pool is contractually expected to give an IRR of 12.8%. The transferor agrees for a partial risk transfer with the transferee, agreeing to the first 10% of the interest realisation, with the transferee retaining the remaining. Is this allowed? ..	31
39. A transferor has originated a loan pool. In order to mitigate the risks of the pool, the transferor organises a credit guarantee or credit default swap in relation to this pool. Now, the transfer wants to transfer such a credit enhanced pool. Is this allowed?.....	32
Liquidity facilities	32
40. What kinds of liquidity facilities would be barred?	32
41. Can the transferor repurchase the transferred loan after a particular time? ..	32
42. Does that mean that the transferee will not be able to recover any damages, etc. if any representation/warranty given by the transferor is found to be incorrect? 32	32
Minimum Holding Period	33
43. What is "minimum holding period" or MHP criteria?	33
44. When does the MHP start?.....	33
45. If creation of security interest has to be done with multiple places, which one should be taken as a reference point for the purpose of MHP requirements? ..	33
46. Why is such a requirement there in place? What is its necessity?	33
47. Does MHP criteria apply to all loan transfers?	34
48. Does MHP apply to loans acquired?	34

49. Are there any exemptions available from MHP? Are loan transactions enlisted in clause 28 under Chapter III are exempted from MHP?	34
50. Is it the responsibility of the transferee to check if the loans being acquired meet MHP criteria?	35
51. Does the determination of MHP happen at a loan level? That is, if we are acquiring a pool of loans, do we need to check the holding period of each loan, or do we take the average MHP of the pool?	35
52. What if the acquired loans do not meet the MHP criteria? What if some of the loans in the pool do not meet the MHP criteria, but the average MHP of the pool is fine	35
Minimum risk retention	35
53. What is the minimum risk retention requirement?	35
54. Is there a minimum risk retention requirement under the TLE Directions? ..	36
55. How different are the MRR requirements under the TLE Directions from the erstwhile guidelines?	36
56. A transferor has executed a DA transaction under the erstwhile guidelines and retained a part of the pool after complying with the MRR requirements. Now the transfer wishes to transfer its share and not retain any part of the portfolio under the TLE Directions - is it allowed?.....	36
Servicing arrangements.....	37
57. Can the transferor be the servicer?	37
58. Can any person other than the transferor be appointed as a servicer?	37
59. What kind of activities are within the domain of the servicer?.....	37
60. Are there any Do's and Don'ts for servicing facilities?.....	37
61. Para 27 of the TLE Directions provide for conditions for servicing arrangements. However, the para starts with the words, "If a lender, including a transferor . . ." - what are the implications of such broad usage of words?	38
62. What can be the maximum duration of the servicing facility?	39
63. How does one determine if the servicing facility is on an 'arms' length' basis?.....	39
64. What kinds of scenarios would indicate 'deferral' or 'waiver' of servicing fee or other payments under servicing contract?	40
65. Say if the servicing fee is fixed for one part and variable for the other part. Can the variable part of the fee be waived for non-fulfilment of related performance indicators?	40
66. What are the implications if the servicing arrangement does not meet any or one of the requirements stated above?	40

67.	It is observed that proviso to sub-clause (g) of clause 26, uses the words “. . .if the above conditions are not satisfied, the lender shall maintain capital . . .”. Does that mean, irrespective of whether the servicing facility is rendered by the transferor or any lender (as listed in clause 3 of TLE Directions), the servicer will have to maintain that capital charge (if the servicing conditions are not met)?	40
	Loan participation	40
68.	What is meant by ‘loan participation’?	40
69.	How is it legally different from sale/assignment/novation?	41
70.	Is loan participation the same as ‘co-lending’ and ‘loan syndication’, or say ‘consortium lending’?	42
71.	So, you are saying that in loan participation, we cannot transfer ‘legal ownership’ to any extent. We can only transfer whole or part of our economic interest. Is that right?	42
72.	Was loan participation not allowed earlier, and the Directions accord permissibility to loan participations?	42
73.	What all interests can be offered for or opted for participation? Is there any restriction on the extent of participation?	43
74.	Is there any restriction on the number of participants?	43
75.	Will a loan participation qualify for off balance sheet treatment?	43
	Lender on record	43
76.	Who is a ‘lender on record’? What does it actually mean? Can parties choose who is the lender on record?	43
77.	So, the lender on record remains liable for the obligations (vis-a-vis borrowers), if any, under the loan contract?	44
78.	If the lender on record is not the transferor, are there any obligations to intimate the borrower?	44
79.	If the original lender remains the lender on record, is there any mandate or otherwise necessity to intimate the borrower?	44
80.	It is understandable that in case of loan participation, the transferor retains legal ownership and thus remains the lender on record. However, in case of assignment or novation, it is stipulated that legal ownership (to the extent of economic interest transferred) should mandatorily shift to transferee. Should that also entail change in ‘lender on record’ to that extent?	45
81.	How are the rights and obligations of a ‘lender on record’ different from a lender not on record? If an underlying borrower has a grievance under the loan contract, who can he approach?	45
	Chapter III: Transfer of loans which are not in default	45

82. What is the meaning and scope of “loans which are not in default” (say, non-defaulted loans)? Are these the same as ‘standard assets’ as specified in the asset classification norms of RBI?	45
83. What about loans “which are in default”? Do the TLE Directions cover those loans?.....	46
84. What are the specific requirements applicable to non-defaulted loans? Are these requirements additional to the general requirements as given above?	46
85. Should we have a different board policy for transfer of non-defaulted loans and transfer of stressed loans?	46
86. Are there any specific loans exempted from these requirements?.....	46
87. Para 30 of TLE Directions say, “A transferor can transfer a single loan or a part of such loan or a portfolio of such loans”. What is meant by “part of such a loan”?.....	47
88. Can the transferor retain legal ownership of loans? If yes, in what circumstances?	47
89. Can the transferor retain economic interest? If yes, in what circumstances? 47	47
90. How can parties enforce security interest in case economic interest is retained in part by the transferor?	47
91. How can the transferee pay for the acquisition of loans? Can consideration be deferred?.....	48
92. What are the aspects that need to be considered while fixing consideration? 48	48
Due Diligence, KYC, Outsourcing.....	49
93. What is the expectation of the regulator from the transferee as regards due diligence of the loans being acquired?.....	49
94. What might be the role of the transferor in the due diligence being conducted by the transferee?	49
95. Should the board policy have any direction on due diligence?	49
96. Can we use the services of outside experts and consultants for due diligence?	50
97. Can we get the loans rated by external agencies?.....	50
98. Can we do due diligence on a sample basis? Or say, by applying suitable filters, say loan value, loan period, borrower profile, etc.?	50
99. Does the extent of due diligence conducted by the transferee have a bearing on retention of economic interest by the transferor?	51

100. What if there are multiple transferees and one of them does not conduct full DD? Will the transferor need to retain economic interest basis the loans acquired by that particular transferee?	51
101. The transferor would have conducted KYC checks (either internally or through outsourcing arrangements) at the time of origination of loans. Is that exercise necessary for the transferee too, or can he simply rely on the KYC check done by the transferor?	51
102. What if the due diligence reveals that KYC norms have not been fully complied or that KYC checks have been insufficient with respect to certain loans?	52
103. TLE Directions do not allow any sort of credit enhancement or liquidity facility by the transferor. Also, repurchase of loans is not allowed. However, a transferee will always look for certain kinds of representations and warranties from the transferor as to asset quality. Do the Directions prohibit such representations and warranties from the transferor?	52
Capital Adequacy and Prudential Norms	53
104. As a transferor, do we need to maintain any capital for loans transferred? Does the scenario remain the same in case of loan participation?	53
105. TLE Directions allow retention of economic interest and in certain cases, mandate retention of economic interest (as discussed in earlier questions) by the transferor. Is there a capital charge in such cases?	53
106. With respect to loans (or part thereof) retained by the transferor, what are the implications under risk management framework, ICAAP, stress-testing, etc.? 53
107. What happens to income recognition, asset classification, and provisioning as regards economic interest transferred and that retained by the transferor?	53
108. What will be the treatment of any loss or gain on sale of loans in the books of the transferor?	54
109. Is the transferee required to maintain borrower-wise accounts?	54
110. So, if the transferee is maintaining borrower-wise accounts, should the prudential norms, credit monitoring be applied at borrower level?	54
Chapter IV: Transfer of stressed loans	54
General Questions.....	54
111. What is the scope of 'stressed loans'? Is it the same as NPA?	54
112. Asset reconstruction companies are not included in clause 3 of TLE Directions, but are covered under this Chapter. Is this right?	55
113. Who are eligible transferors of stressed loans?.....	55
114. Who are eligible transferees of stressed loans?	55
115. What are the eligible modes of transfer of stressed loans?	56
