

Securitisation & Transfer of Loan Exposures

A comprehensive guide

Vinod Kothari Consultants

Available now!

Vinod Kothari Consultants is pleased to release the book Securitisation & Transfer of Loan Exposures

- ❖ Comprehensively covers the Directions dealing with securitisation of standard assets, as well as transfer of loan exposures or so-called direct assignments.
- ❖ Contains carefully curated frequently asked questions (FAQs) under each regulation, where possible, along with the genesis of the regulation and its intent, and with comparison of the global norms in the matter.
- ❖ Dedicated chapters on the law, accounting and taxation of securitisation provide a complete guide to the reader, allowing the reader to interconnect the same with the regulations and get the full picture.
- ❖ Authors have had a global view of securitisation over the years. Team guided by Vinod Kothari, who has authored several texts on securitisation, read all over the world.

For orders and details, contact:

Parth Ved – parth@vinodkothari.com | 7021179919

Aisha Ansari – aisha@vinodkothari.com | 8169321392

Table of Contents

Part I: Introduction to Securitisation
Chapter 1: Understanding the basics of Securitisation & Structured Finance	3
Chapter 2: Securitisation in India: Tracing the developments in the market	29
Chapter 3: Asset Classes and Structures in India	40
Part II: Legal and Regulatory Aspects of Securitisation in India
Chapter 4: Law of assignment and true sale of receivables	59
Chapter 5: Commentary on the Directions on Securitisation of Standard Assets	87
Appendix 1: Comparative analysis of the regulatory framework for Securitisation of Standard Assets	307
Chapter 6: Commentary on the Directions on Transfer of Loan Exposures	377
Appendix 2: Comparative analysis of Transfer of Loan Exposures Directions	539
Appendix 3: Comparison between Securitisation and Transfer of Standard Loan Exposures	557
Part III: Accounting and Taxation Aspects of Securitisation and Transfer of Loan Exposures
Chapter 7: Securitisation Accounting	562
Chapter 8: Taxation aspects of Securitisation and Assignment Transactions	594
Glossary
Subject Index

Detailed Table of Contents

Part I: Introduction to Securitisation
Chapter 1: Understanding the basics of Securitisation &amp; Structured Finance	3
Features of Structured Finance	4
Why Structured Finance?	5
Structured Finance as a source of Funding	5
Structured Finance as an instrument of risk management	5
Structured Finance as an income generating instrument	6
Use of Structured Finance in different financial products	6
Securitisation	6
Credit Default Swaps	10
Loan syndication	11
Collateralised Debt Obligations	13
Collateralised Mortgage Obligations	16
Hybrid Instruments	17
Application of Structured Finance Principles in Securitisation	19
Credit enhancements	21
Structured Finance and Credit Rating	25
Chapter 2: Securitisation in India: Tracing the developments in the market	29
An unregulated market to start with	29
Steering in the regulated environment	31
Bringing securitisation to the capital market	31
Bilateral deals separated from PTC deals	31
Bringing Direct Assignments under the regulatory ambit	33
Securitisation industry and the series of crisis	34
Separate regulations for Securitisation and Direct Assignments	35
Securitisation volumes in India riding the tides of regulatory developments	36

Chapter 3: Asset Classes and Structures in India	40
Asset Classes	40
Existing Assets versus Future Flows	41
Mortgage Loans	42
Asset-backed Loans	49
Securitisation Structures in India	51
Cash vs Synthetic Structure	51
True Sale vs Secured Loan Structure	54
Part II: Legal and Regulatory Aspects of Securitisation in India
Chapter 4: Law of assignment and true sale of receivables	59
Meaning of assignment	59
Assignment of Contract vs. Assignment of Benefits under Contract	60
Whether receivables can be assigned?	61
Globally Accepted Principles	63
Whether liabilities can be assigned separately	63
Principles for assignment of receivables	64
Notice of assignment to the counterparty	65
Rights and Obligations of the Assignee	65
Change in terms of contract pursuant to assignment, whether possible	66
Assignability of encumbered receivables	66
Assignment and effect of insolvency on the assets assigned	67
Assignment as a tool of creation of security interest	72

Chapter 4: Law of assignment and true sale of receivables
Assignment vs. loan participation contracts	72
Assignment vs. co-lending transactions	73
Assignment vs. securitisation	73
Assignment in securitisation transactions, and the concept of true sale	74
Assignment as a sale: A True Sale or Plain Vanilla Sale	74
Bankruptcy Remoteness in securitisation transactions	75
Is 'True Sale' a regulatory requirement?	76
True sale and accounting off-balance sheet	78
Disguised Funding Transaction: The Banana Skin	78
Re-characterisation Risk	79
Basic tests in determining a true sale	79
Language of the agreement	79
Bonafide intention	81
Buyer retains generic recourse to the seller	82
Restrains on the buyer's ability to resell the asset	84
Co-mingling of assets or cashflows	84
Rulings in India	85
Chapter 5: Commentary on the Directions on Securitisation of Standard Assets	87
Appendix 1: Comparative analysis of the regulatory framework for Securitisation of Standard Assets	307

Chapter 6: Commentary on the Directions on Transfer of Loan Exposures	377
Appendix 2: Comparative analysis of Transfer of Loan Exposures Directions	539
Appendix 3: Comparison between Securitisation and Transfer of Loan Exposures	557
Part III: Accounting and Taxation Aspects of Securitisation and Transfer of Loan Exposures
Chapter 7: Securitisation Accounting	562
Meaning of key terms	563
Financial Asset	563
De-recognition	564
Fair valuation	565
Transition into IFRS	565
Banks	566
NBFCs	566
Accounting standards for securitization in India	567
Accounting treatment for companies following AS	567
De-recognition	567
Profit recognition	567
Consolidation	572
Accounting treatment for companies following Ind AS	572
Consolidation and structured entity disclosures	583
Applicability of Ind AS 112	587
Accounting in the Books of Special Purpose Vehicle	588
Accounting in the Books of the Investor	588
Accounting for investment in PTCs	588
Accounting of Assignment Transactions	590
De recognition in case of Transfer of Loan Exposures	591
Gain on Sale	591
Reporting of Retained Interests	593

Chapter 8: Taxation aspects of Securitisation and Assignment Transactions	594
Direct taxes	594
Securitisation Distribution Tax	596
Withdrawal of Securitisation Distribution Tax and introduction of section 115TCA	599
Taxation in case of transfer of loan exposures	602
Indirect taxes	603
GST implications on securitisation transactions	605
GST implications on transfer of loan exposures	612
GST implications on sale of Non-Performing Loans (NPLs)	612
Stamp duty	613
Glossary
Subject Index	